- Abraham was given a seed that these blessings and promises were passed down through
- The blessing was passed down first to his son Isaac, and then to his son Jacob
- Jacob had 12 sons and the blessings were passed on to these 12 sons and their descendants in equal
- These 12 sons are known as the 12 tribes of Yashar'el (Israel)
- YAHUAH chose the children of Yashar'el as His chosen people. They were His chosen set apart people. (Exodus 19:6, Leviticus 20:6)
- This was the seed that would carry the promises of Abraham through which the other nations would be blessed
- Yashar'el was in a covenant with YAHUAH that they were required to follow
- They eventually forsook His covenant
- They were split up and the Northern Kingdom which consisted of 10 tribes were referred to as Israel
