What is the Davidic Covenant?

The Davidic covenant is an unconditional promise from Yahuah to King David.
Yahuah promises David that his royal dynasty, kingdom, and throne will endure forever.

"When your days are fulfilled and you rest with your fathers,
I will set up your seed after you, who will come from your body,
and I will establish his kingdom.
He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.
I will be his Father, and he shall be My son.
If he commits iniquity,
I will chasten him with the rod of men and with the blows of the sons of men.
But My mercy shall not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from before you.
And your house and your kingdom shall be established forever before you.
Your throne shall be established forever." ' ""
2nd Samuel 7:11-16

The Davidic Covenant

- David would have a son for whom Yahuah would establish a Kingdom through

""When your days are fulfilled and you rest with your fathers,
I will set up your seed after you, who will come from your body,
and I will establish his kingdom."
2nd Samuel 7:12

- David's son would build a house for Yahuah and Yahuah would establish the throne of his son's kingdom forever

"He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever."
2nd Samuel 7:13

We know this later to be Solomon who built the temple for Yahuah.
You can read about this in 1st Kings Chapter 6
So being that we know that Solomon is the fulfillment of this.
Let's be even more clear.

Yahuah said he would establish the throne of Solomon's Kingdom forever

"Then he called for his son Solomon, and charged him to build a house for Yahuah God of Israel.
And David said to Solomon:
"My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build a house to the name of Yahuah my God;
but the word of Yahuah came to me, saying,
'You have shed much blood and have made great wars;
you shall not build a house for My name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in My sight.
Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of rest;
and I will give him rest from all his enemies all around.
His name shall be Solomon, for I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days.
He shall build a house for My name, and he shall be My son, and I will be his Father;
and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.'" 1st Chronicles 22:6-10

- If David's Son sinned, He still would not remove this Kingdom from David

"I will be his Father, and he shall be My son.
If he commits iniquity,
I will chasten him with the rod of men and with the blows of the sons of men.
But My mercy shall not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from before you."
2nd Samuel 7:14-15

- David's royal line and his Kingdom shall be established forever. His throne shall be established forever.

"And your house and your kingdom shall be established forever before you.
Your throne shall be established forever." ' "
2nd Samuel 7:16

If you do not have this understanding, you will not understand the Messiah.

The promise is:

"And your house and your kingdom shall be established forever before you. Your throne shall be established forever." ' "

2nd Samuel 7:16

David's house, His Kingdom, and His throne shall be established forever.
And this is how we get to the prophecies about the Messiah coming from David and establishing the throne
This is a promise made to David.
2nd Samuel 7 establishes it and from this point it is spoken throughout the scriptures.

What we see prophesied about the Messiah in reference to David

- Yahuah says He will not alter the Word gone out from His Lips. He will not lie to David. (Psalm 89:34-35)
- He said David's seed shall endure forever (Psalms 89:36)
- David's throne shall be established forever. (Psalms 89:37)
- Yahuah will raise branch of righteousness from David's line (Jeremiah 23:5)
- This branch from David will be a King that will reign and prosper and execute judgment and righteousness in the earth. (Jeremiah 23:5)
- A rod shall come from the line of Jesse who is the father of David and a Branch will grow from his roots. (Isaiah 11:1)
- So a child will be born and the government will be upon His shoulder (Isaiah 9:6)
- His government will be upon the throne of David (Isaiah 9:7)
- He will be a Mighty Warrior coming through the power of Yahuah. (Isaiah 9:6)

DEALING WITH ISAIAH 9:6

THIS IS A PROPHECY COMPLETELY ABOUT THE GOVERNMENT YAHUSHA WILL HAVE IN THE COMING KINGDOM. IT IS COMPLETELY ABOUT THE MILLENIAL REIGN AND YAHUSHA FULFILLING THE DAVIDIC COVENANT. IT IS COMPLETELY LINKED TO THE COVENANT WITH DAVID

"For unto us a Child is born, Unto us a Son is given;
And the government will be upon His shoulder.
And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
Of the increase of His government and peace There will be no end,
Upon the throne of David and over His kingdom,
To order it and establish it with judgment and justice From that time forward, even forever.
The zeal of Yahuah of hosts will perform this."
Isaiah 9:6-7

His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

MIGHTY GOD

The word here Mighty God in Hebrew is El Gibbor.
It translates to "Mighty God" or "God the Warrior", combining El (God) with Gibbor (mighty, strong, or warrior)

The word gibbor is directly connected to King David and his elite soldiers.
It is frequently used in the books of Samuel and Chronicles to describe the Gibborim—King David's legendary "mighty men" or elite warriors (such as in 2 Samuel 23:8)

"These are the names of the mighty men whom David had:
Josheb-Basshebeth the Tachmonite, chief among the captains.
He was called Adino the Eznite, because he had killed eight hundred men at one time.
And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there for battle, and the men of Israel had retreated.
He arose and attacked the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand stuck to the sword.
Yahuah brought about a great victory that day;
and the people returned after him only to plunder.
And after him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite.
The Philistines had gathered together into a troop where there was a piece of ground full of lentils.
So the people fled from the Philistines.
But he stationed himself in the middle of the field, defended it, and killed the Philistines.
So Yahuah brought about a great victory."
2nd Samuel 23:8-12

These were mighty men whom David had.
All of these are examples of Might of the Gibborim.
As you notice that though they fought with strength, it is Yahuah who is claimed to bring about the victory.
Just as David and his gibborim fought with divine backing, the title El Gibbor applied to the ultimate Davidic ruler (the Messiah).
This title reflects God's supreme strength and warrior character working through or embodying that royal lineage

In ancient Hebrew culture, names containing divine elements often described Yahuah being worshipped or His attributes working through the person—rather than making the person God Himself—much like the name Isaiah means "Yahuah saves"

In ancient warfare, champions fought on behalf of their people, and kings were often viewed as God's representatives exercising strength and justice.
This is who this coming Messiah who is on the throne of David will be.
He comes in the name of Yahuah.
It's what is prophesied of Him in Revelation 19

"Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse.
And He who sat on him was called Faithful and True,
and in righteousness He judges and makes war.
His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns.
He had a name written that no one knew except Himself.
He was clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God.
And the armies in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, followed Him on white horses.
Now out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it He should strike the nations.
And He Himself will rule them with a rod of iron.
He Himself treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God."
Revelation 19:11-15

He is bringing the fierceness and wrath of the Almighty God who is Yahuah.

- He is the Word manifested in the flesh.
- Just like He is the representation of the Torah in the flesh, when He comes back with a sword, He is the manifestation in the flesh of all that Yahuah has declared.
- If you know what Yahuah declared, then you would know that this is what He represents.

Understanding the Covenant Yahuah made with David is crucial.
Understanding & knowing what is prophesied of the Messiah in regards to David is crucial.
The lie of the coming antichrist is for all that don't understand this.
